2 Corinthians 10:1-4 by Rick Myatt

To be anti-fragile is to experience chaos and stress, in this case the chaos of conflict, and not only be strong through it but to actually grow from it. For that to happen we will have to use the proper weapons and fight the right way. Today we will look at 2 Corinthians 10:1-4, a passage in which our weapons are a topic of discussion.
