

I Always Wanted to be a Musketeer

Sun, Jul 07, 2013

2 Corinthians 5:14-15 by Rick Myatt

We cannot be antifragile unless we know what our purpose in life is. We must be clear on what determines our choices and our responses to every situation. Today we will consider 2 Corinthians 5:14-15 and see that there is a purpose that can make us less fragile, more able to grow stronger no matter what circumstance may occur.

Series: Anti-fragile

I ALWAYS WANTED TO BE A MUSKETEER

5th in the series, "Antifragile" - Passage: 2 Corinthians 5:14-15

Topic: Our purpose in life

Christ's Love is Arresting - Romans 8:37; Ephesians 3:17-18

Christ's Death is the Proof - Romans 5:8

Christ's Death Gives New Purpose - 1 Corinthians 6:19-20