

Life in HD

Sun, Sep 08, 2013

2 Corinthians 11:23-29 by Rick Myatt

Is it not obvious that a pretend purpose will sustain our souls as well as pretend air will sustain our bodies, which is to say not at all? This idea of purpose most certainly has direct bearing on our idea of being antifragile. We will see that in the life of Paul, the author of 2 Corinthians, as we study 2 Corinthians 11:23-29.

Series: Anti-fragile

LIFE IN HD

12th in the series, "Antifragile" - Passage: 2 Corinthians 11:23-29

Topic: Having a Mission

Paul Relentlessly Pursued a Goal - Romans 5:3-4; 1 Corinthians 4:1; Philippians 1:20

Paul Made the Sacrifice - Colossians 1:28-29; Acts 9:13-14; Luke 14:28-30, 33

Implications

What is Your Mission? - John 6:14-15; Luke 19:10; Mark 10:45; Acts 20:24

What Price Will You Pay?

